

SHARE & CHANGE

Friendships are relationships you choose to have. In teams, discuss how you understand the statement and what friendship means to you. E.g. A good friend of yours shares your joy and sorrow, laughter and tears. They understand your moods and put up with your failings. Share at least 4 similar ideas. Take it in turns.

Keep using present simple to talk about general truths!

B2 Mini-debate & discussion topic

1

SHARE & CHANGE

Spending time with family and friends is the most important way of maintaining good mental health. Discuss other things that are most crucial for your emotional well-being these days. Generate at least 6 ideas and 6 reasons. Take it in turns.

Use as many superlative structures as possible!

B2 Mini-debate & discussion topic

2

SHARE & CHANGE

Being young is very often associated with change, progress and the future. In teams, discuss how true this statement is about you and your peers.

Remember that now is the time to experiment with present forms of verbs, so be patient!

B2 Mini-debate & discussion topic

3