

1. Look at the pictures. Listen and repeat.

START

Shall we play a board game?

- Listen to the teacher and number the pictures.
- Play the game with your friend. Roll a dice and move your counter on the board. Label the pictures you land on. Use the words from the box.

watch out      put out      blow up      break into      break out get over      black out      throw up      come down with      pass away

4. Work out the definitions.

- 1. To lose consciousness. → .....
- 2. To vomit. → .....
- 3. To catch an illness. → .....
- 4. To die. → .....
- 5. To feel better after an illness. → .....
- 6. To get inside a building using force usually to steal something. → .....
- 7. To stop a fire. → .....
- 8. To explode. → .....
- 9. To start suddenly (about a fire, war or epidemics). → .....
- 10. To be careful. → .....

5. Listen to the definitions and circle the correct picture.

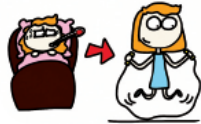

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

6. Tick the correct phrasal verb.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

break out

come down with throw up

black out

pass away

put out

get over

blow up

break out

watch out

7. Choose the correct option.

1. I must have eaten something bad. I blew / threw up all night.
2. Bill had suffered from cancer for almost three years but he finally passed / got over it.
3. Watch / Break out! A car is coming!
4. Last night a burglar broke out / into our house and stole my laptop and my dad's camera.
5. She always blacks / blows out when she sees even a tiny drop of blood.
6. The firemen finally managed to break / put out the fire in the forest.

8. Ask your partner the following questions. Take turns.

1. When was the last time you came down with something? What did you do to get over it?
2. Have you ever blacked out? What happened?
3. When was the last time you threw up? What happened?
4. What should you do when you see a fire break out? What are some ways to put out a fire?
5. What advice can you give to a person who's coming down with a cold?
6. What can you do to prevent people from breaking into your house?
7. What should you watch out for when you go climbing in the mountains or hiking in the jungle?
8. What do burglars usually steal when they break into a house?
9. There is a famous pet cemetery in San Francisco where people bury their animals when they pass away. Do you think it's a good idea?